With not much happening in or out of school at the moment, there isn't much news at all. We await the government's decision on 22nd February which will give us a clearer indication of what will happen beyond 8th March.

In the meantime, I would just like to say 'well done' to all our pupils for working so hard over the last few weeks, engaging with zoom calls and producing imaginative and such a variety of work. Thanks must also go to parents who have patiently helped their children. Home schooling is by no means easy. Finally, I must thank all the school staff who have worked extremely hard in a variety of different ways and we all look forward to welcoming the children back to school.
